Employees of CIS are committed to the mission statement and philosophy of the school, as well as the independent school model. Just as we expect our teachers to nurture the academic, physical and creative growth of our students, we believe in developing our teachers. The unique size of CIS provides for greater collaboration with fellow colleagues, parents, and students to promote the good of the whole school community. CIS faculty members exemplify a strong knowledge base in their discipline and are passionate about developing their students' intellectual curiosity toward the subject. We hope you will consider joining the faculty and staff of CIS as we contribute to the goals and vision of our school.
